

county of San Joaquin, State of California, forming a part of the right-of-way granted by the United States to the Central Pacific Railway Company by the Act of July 1, 1862 (12 Stat. 489), as amended by the Act of July 2, 1864 (13 Stat. 356), is hereby legalized, validated, and confirmed, as far as the interest of the United States is concerned, with the same force and effect as if the land involved therein had been held by the Central Pacific Railway Company and the Southern Pacific Company at the time of such conveyance under absolute fee simple title.

SEC. 2. The conveyance referred to in the first section of this Act was made by the Central Pacific Railway Company and the Southern Pacific Company, grantors, to D'Arrigo Bros. Co. of California, a California corporation, grantee, and was recorded on October 1, 1956, in book 1906, at page 332, in the office of the County Recorder of San Joaquin County, California, under recorder's serial number 37272.

SEC. 3. (a) Nothing contained in this Act is intended or shall be construed to—

(1) diminish the right-of-way referred to in the first section of this Act to a width less than fifty feet on either side of the center of the main track or tracks of the Central Pacific Railway Company and the Southern Pacific Company as established and maintained on the date of enactment of this Act; nor

(2) legalize, validate, or confirm any right, title, or interest in and to the land referred to in the first section of this Act arising out of adverse possession, prescription, or abandonment, and not confirmed by conveyance made by the Central Pacific Railway Company and the Southern Pacific Company before the date of enactment of this Act.

(b) There is hereby reserved to the United States all oil, coal, or other minerals in the land referred to in the first section of this Act, together with the right to prospect for, mine, and remove the same under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe.

Reservations.
